

threetwelve

music with integrity, passion, and excellence

ABOUT THREE TWELVE

Since its inception in 2005, Three Twelve (known individually as Jason Whetstone, Deb McClain, and David M. Glasgow) has performed for thousands of listeners, in coffeehouses, conference centers, and festival stages. With musical styles ranging from intimate ballads to jump-up-and-down rock, a typical Three Twelve concert may include not only innovative original words and music, but also covers and fresh arrangements of Sheryl Crow, Seal, and P!nk, music from Rent—wherever the trio themselves find transcendent truth. Wherever they go, whatever they sing, listeners speak of hearing “exactly what they needed” in the music, speaking of situations ranging from a bad day at work to a cancer diagnosis. For more information, including audio samples, tour schedule, and booking information, visit threetwelve.net.